

South Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles United States Citizens' Checklist

MV-93
(Rev. 08/17)

In the near future you will be able to choose whether you want to get a REAL ID or not. If you choose to get a REAL ID, you must provide two proofs of address in addition to the other documents. Without a REAL ID, you must have another federally approved identification, such as a valid US Passport or military ID, and show it to pass security at airports nationwide or enter secure federal facilities. You do not need a REAL ID beginner's permit, driver's license, or identification card (ID) to do any of the following: drive; vote; access hospital care; enter non-secured federal facilities such as a post office; receive federal benefits for which you're entitled (Social Security Administration, Veterans Affairs); or participate in law enforcement investigations or proceedings. Regardless of what choice you make, the cost of a South Carolina REAL ID is the same as a beginner's permit, license, or ID that is not a REAL ID.

These requirements are for someone who is applying for a first-time SC beginner's permit, driver's license, or ID; or was previously licensed in SC and is returning after being issued a license or ID in another state; or when a beginner's permit, license, or ID has been expired for more than nine months. If you previously held a SC card, you will not need to provide your identity and SSN documents again if a copy of those documents can be located in SCDMV's files, but you are required to provide at least one updated document with your current address. Please use this checklist as a reference.

- A. You must surrender any driver's license, beginner's/learner's permit, or ID issued by another state. If it was lost or stolen, you must provide a certified copy of your driving record from the state that issued the driver's license, beginner's permit, or ID.
- B. You must provide the following original (not photocopies) documents unless otherwise stated. All documents are subject to verification. This list is subject to change at the SCDMV's discretion. Documents not in English must be translated by a qualified translator. The translator must have a letter of verification from their employer on letterhead qualifying them as a translator. The translation must be made on the Translation Document (SCDMV form 4030).
